

Journal: Lesson 3

How do I define “the prosperity imperative”? What is my experience of it?

What is my sense of connecting my heartfelt inspiration with recognizing inherent divine support? Do I think support is fundamental to my dharmic desires? How have I experienced support with my worthy endeavors in the past?

Look at the current conditions in your life with compassionate curiosity and dispassion as you inquire: What are the conditions in my life right now? Take an inventory of your wealth as it expresses in all areas of your life. Where do you see or experience signs of thriving? In your work, your relationships, health, spiritual life, creative endeavors? Does it appear that prosperity is lacking anywhere or that greater fulfillment is welcome?

Imagine or envision thriving in every aspect of your life. What would that be like? Describe it. Fill in the details and remember to include how it will feel to be living such abundance.
